GOODNESS AND MERCY

BY ZION NALUYIMBA

If the lord is the shepherd who leads the flock, goodness and mercy are the two sheepdogs that guard the rear of the flock. It's goodness and Mercy, not goodness alone for we are sinners in need of mercy, not mercy alone for we are fragile in need of goodness. We need them both, "Goodness to supply every want, Mercy to forgive every sin. Goodness to provide, Mercy to pardon."

Goodness and Mercy follow the child of God each and every day! Psalms 23:6. Think of the days that lie ahead, Days of scarcity, God will be at your side. Days in a dead-end job? He will walk you through. Days of giving up? He will take your hand. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me -not some, not most, not nearly all - but all the days of my life.

The Lord is determined to chase after us every moment of everyday until we finally know and experience for ourselves the wonder of his goodness. Goodness and Mercy are your protectors and they follow you all the days of your life. We need to be similarly confident and comforted believing that everyday of our lives, these two friends of David are with us for every step of life's journey.

5 STEPS TO FINANCIAL FREEDOM

BY TRACY NANYONGA

Being financially free means you are saving, investing and debt free. Achieving this requires discipline and commitment. Here are 5 steps you can take to achieve financial freedom.

1. Tithing

This is the most important step because only God can give true financial freedom. Whenever we don't tithe, we rob God of the opportunity to bless us. Malachi 3:8.

2. Saving

Think of this as paying yourself. After giving back to God what belongs to Him, ensure you pay yourself next by putting money into your savings account.

3. Set financial Goals

One of the ways to do this is by not letting any of your money be idle. Assign a job to every shilling.

4. Believe that God is your source

No matter the situation, keep on declaring, "Money is not a problem to me and will never be. Philippians 4:19

5. Be Generous

Generosity helps us to shift our focus to what is truly important, for where our treasure is there our heart will be also. Mathew 6:21. It also builds our faith by helping us put our hope in God.

THE LIGHT IN US

BY DANIELLA BIDORHO

"This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all." 1 John 1:5

Before God created man, He first commanded light to be and He saw that light was good and separated it from darkness. Light represents what is true and holy. Throughout the Bible light is associated with Jesus, His word and His people.

James 1:17 refers to God as the "Father of lights". This means that as children of God, we are lights and He wants us keep shining in every season of life not letting darkness to overshadow us. God commands us to shine our light before men so that they may see our good works and glorify God.

The light in us should not only enlighten our lives but also eliminate the darkness from the lives of those around us.

Jesus explained that no one lights a lamp just to hide it under a basket but it is meant to be placed on a stand where it can give light to everything around it.

The light within us can be spread to the world by sharing the word of God and testimonies of what he has done for us. Whenever we concentrate on knowing God and developing a relationship with Him, His light shines through us.

You can let the light of God to shine in and through your life by believing in and submitting to His word. A daily connection with God's word will make your light shine brighter and brighter each day.

The light in us should not only enlighten our lives, but also eliminate the darkness from the lives of those around us.
